

press release

Miggy and Me

“Miggy and Me” is an artwork by Anna Walker which formed part of a very lovely gift by a writer to his mother.

The work is taken from an illustrated poem called “The Miggy Tree”. It was written by Karl Yeomans for his mother, Margot, to celebrate her 50th birthday. Tragically, when Karl was only 33 years old, his life was cut short by a brain tumour. Shortly after his death, Karl’s wife decided to bring this wonderful poem to life as a beautiful book illustrated by Anna Walker, which became a precious gift for their 2 year old son, Marlow, and his grandma Margot, affectionately nicknamed Miggy.

Kindergallery is offering free postage on orders of “Miggy and Me” during the month of May to celebrate Mothers’ Day.

Please contact fiona@kindergallery.com for details.